Saturday 19th November 2011 - Coach Development Day

Ray Willis - KYC U13 Coach

Ray was previously sports master at St Michaels School , Otford and has coached the Kent U13 squad for the past ten years. Ray has enjoyed the U13s winning the Taunton Festival 6 out of ten times, taking them to National Finals three times, and winning the ECB U13 county championship in 2010.

Jason Weaver - KCB High Performance

Jason is Kent Cricket Boards High Performance Manager, and responsible for both Girls and Boys cricket development. He moved to Kent in 2006 after enjoying being part of the ECB Coach Education team at Edgbaston. Jason works alongside all the KYC team coaches and managers.

Peter Kelly - KCCC Strength & Conditioning Coach

Peter joined KCCC in April 2010, and works with the 1st team and Academy players, helping them with their physical development by preparing and implementing player training programmes. Previously Peter worked with the Otago Air New Zealand Cup Rugby Squad.

Simon Willis - KCCC High Performance Director

Simon enjoyed keeping for Kent for seven years, before moving into coaching. He holds the ECB Level 4 qualification, and has completed ECB Executive Management and coaching Skills course. He established Kent Cricket Academy in 2003, and has also enjoyed working with the 1st Team. He has experienced various overseas cricketing environments to help define best coaching practice. In 2007 and 2008 he visited the Global Cricket School in Mumbai to study their coaching methods and practice.
