

Safeguarding is Brought to Life with Geese

For anyone with an interest in Safeguarding and child protection, the Geese performance of “Crossing the Line” is not to be missed. Geese (a Birmingham Theatre Company with an international reputation) use drama, humour and audience interaction to bring many aspects of safeguarding to life, and help put this work in a real-world sports context. For anyone who thinks safeguarding is just doing a CRB check – come along and witness a really thought-provoking and interesting dramatisation of this subject. You will not be disappointed.

The production is aimed at anyone within a sports context who has an interest, or responsibility for Safeguarding within their organisation. Responsibility for safeguarding the children in our Club is everyone’s - Club Welfare Officers, Coaches, Team Managers, Committee members and fellow players – and I know you will find it interesting.

Two performances will be held on Tuesday 24th April, 2012 at Medway Hall, Angel Centre, Tonbridge. One in the afternoon and one in the evening. Tickets are £20 each – please fill in and return the form below.

If you are a Club Connect or Club Connect Gold member you can purchase your ticket for £18 from Bianca Logronio at Kent Sport Leisure and Olympics. Tel: 01622 605010 or e mail: Bianca.logronio@kent.gov.uk OR from KCB. Tickets will be sold on a first-come first-served basis – so book now to avoid disappointment. KCB may offer a small discount also. The balance should ideally be paid by your Club.

I would like to purchase tickets for the Geese Crossing the Line event at Medway Hall, The Angel Centre, Tonbridge.

I enclose £..... (£20 per ticket).

Tuesday 24th April 2012 – afternoon performance

Tuesday 24th April 2012 – evening performance

Name: Tel:

E mail address: Club (if applicable):

Address:

.....

Please make cheques payable to Kent Cricket Board and send to KCB, St Lawrence Ground, Old Dover Road, Canterbury CT1 3NZ